THE TOOL CASE

PROTECT-LINE stands for best protection, transport and organization of sensitive devices and tools. Thanks to the well thought-out and particularly robust body from polypropylene, the cases not only resist shocks, dust, water and adverse weather conditions, they are also extremely heat-resistant. The protective cases are certified according to IP67, STANAG 4280 and DEF STAN 81-41 as well as NATO-codified (NSN) and ensure best protection for your tools! Whether you wish to custom-shape the interior of your case, use pre-cut foam inserts for special storage options or sewn separators for easy arrangement of your tools - the protective cases from the PROTECT-LINE series are versatile and ideal for individual use!
